Lok Sabha Elections in J&K

73. SHRI ASHOK MITRA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the statement of the Jammu and Kashmir National Conference that the recent Lok Sabha elections in the State have been neither free nor fair;

(b) whether Government have also taken cognisance of the Chief Election Commissioner's comment that he could neither vouchsafe for nor against the allegation of exercise of force or threat of force by army personnel so as to cajole voters in the valley to cast their ballots; and

(c) the measures proposed to be taken for the proposed forthcoming polls for the State Assembly in Jammu and Kashmir so as to obviate the scope for lodging such allegations?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI S.R. BALASUBRAMONIYAN): (a) to (c) The Government is aware of press report on the points raised in parts (a) and (b) of the question. Government has consistently pointed out that allegations with regard to elections in J&K are baseless, and that the elections were free and fair, despite a sustained campaign of threats and intimidation against all participants in the electoral process by the terrorist and seccessionist elements. The Government will take all possible steps to ensure that elections to the State Assembly can also be totally free and fair and peaceful.
